Statement of purpose
Aim/purpose

Quality of life statements
What do you want your life to be

Forms of production
What needs implementation

Future resource base
Future environ. to sustain forms of prod.

Il Nido's primary objective is to create a network of economically viable symbiotic farm enterprises which are centered around soil regeneration and human's well being. The secondary objective is to offer on-site experiences in order to serve as an example of resilience.

- Learn to unlearn
- A cosy, well-thought and welcoming infrastructure
- We rapidly build movable structures
- We ease the process foreigners to settle down
- We have lots of fun whilst surrounded by international open-minded people
- We have a place which fosters collaboration, open-mindness and creativity
- We harvest high quality, season-based, nutrient dense food and medicinal plants
- We sensitize customers to new nutriments and more humane techniques
- Production through the best regenerative practices mimicking nature
- A very clear, honest and structured communication on the current problematics
- Active collaboration with local politics
- A minimal usage of oil through innovative and efficient techniques or alternatives
- Tidy and ordered working space
- Clear organisation, standardised processes and continual reassessment
- Efficient communication and non-violent conflict resolution
- Enough time for strategic planning
- We have time and space for ourselves and for our loved ones
- We are comitted in creating a resiliant local economy for the benefit of all
- We keep our finances crystal-clear and plan anticipatively
- We have various sources of income
- Our infrastructures meet our needs whilst remaining simple, functional, economic and aesthetic
- We are financially independent, running at low costs and debt free whilst reinvesting in long term symbiotic assets
- We have a clear, recognizable brand which builds over time, attracting an increasing number of customers, supporters and followers
- A clear, singular and consistent visual branding
- A clear sales and marketing plan
- We have an open-gate policy
- Collaboration with existing businesses sharing the same values
- We openly and transparently share our experiences from our lifelong learning process
- We are healthy, energetic and clear-thinking allowing us to be inspiring and lead by example
- We base our values on yoga philosophy, enjoying Nature and its richness
- Daily Yoga and Meditation Practices
- Regular activities in nature
- Collaboration with external yoga teachers and yoga schools
- A very clear, honest and structured digital and in person communication
- We have a measurable positive impact
- Gather structured qualitative and quantitative data about our evolution
- We honor regular sport, good food and qualitative sleep
- Strong link with local community

- Water is under control and evenly distributed across landscape
- Off-grid energy independence
- Commitment to Holistic Context
- A well-informed, supportive and generous community
- Helping neighbours
- Healthy & regenerating soil
- Healthy & rich ecosystems around us
- Competent members in the core teams
- Commitment to regular yoga and meditation practice